

We know what you're thinking, "another piece of junk mail?" Not this time!

We're sending this double-sided K-12 and College Mailing List Directory with you specifically in mind. It's what MKTG Services is all about - reaching the target audience.

MKTG Services offers its clients the latest tools to connect them with their customers: direct mail services, database marketing, media and entertainment, and print services. For over 35 years, the education market has been our specialty and we've amassed the names of over 5 million teachers, faculty, academic administrators and educational product buyers.

So, find your active core education audience and let the responses flood to your business while your competitors' overflow the trash can.
